

BATTLE OF THE BOOKS STUDENT RULES

1. Students may not change or drop out of teams once they have signed up for the Battle of the Books without permission of the librarian.

2. Students agree to read at least four books from the list to help the entire team do well in the Battle of the Books.

3. Students form teams of 5- 6 members. The number of members on the team does not count as much as how well the books have been read and understood.

4. Each team will choose their own team name, which must be approved by the librarian.
